Re: United States v. Keith Raniere, 18 Cr. 204 (NGG)

Dear Judge Garaufis:

Together with Marc Agnifilo, I am currently counsel of record for Keith Raniere in the above-captioned matter. Mr. Raniere has retained new counsel to represent him in connection with this matter going forward. Attorneys Joseph McBride and Steven Alan Metcalf II have filed Notices of Appearances on the docket (Dkts. 999, 1000). Now that Mr. Raniere's new counsel have entered appearances in this matter, I respectfully request to be formally relieved as counsel of record for Mr. Raniere. I have conferred with Mr. Raniere, informed him of my intent to withdraw and he agrees. I have also spoken to Mr. McBride and Mr. Metcalf II, who both consent to my withdrawal.

Mr. Raniere will not be prejudiced by my withdrawal because he is already represented by new counsel of record, I have provided new counsel with the file in this matter and I will be available to provide new counsel with any other information they require.

BRAFMAN & ASSOCIATES, P.C.

In accordance with Local Civ. Rule 1.4, this letter requesting leave of this Court to withdraw as counsel of record will be served upon Mr. Raniere and all parties in this matter. As Mr. Agnifilo stated in his letter, we are not asserting a retaining or charging lien in connection with this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Teny Rose Geragos, Esq.
